There are so many persons better prepared for this important duty, that he must beg to be excused. He is very friendly to home and foreign missions, and colportage, and gives his mite. He thinks there are "too many appeals;" but he gives, if not enough to save his reputation, pretty near it; at all events, he aims at it.

The minimum Christian is not clear on a number of points. The opera and Bloomfield Savings Institution, dancing, the theatre and card playing, and large fashionable parties, give him much trouble. He cannot see the harm for the three and six months ending December 31st, 1875, at the rate of six per cent. per annum in this, or that, or the other popular amusement. There is nothing in the Bible against it. He does not see but that a man may be a Christian, and dance or go to the opera. He knows several excellent persons who do. Five millions of the bullion is now boxed up for shipment, and the balance will be ready in due season. Few people ever saw such a vast sum as ten millions of dollars in gold and silver, all in one of several piles; I think the proposition or Messrs.
